Trooper Robert McClain
9th & 10th Horse Cavalry Buffalo Soldiers

The 9th and 10th Horse Cavalry Association is a non-profit, 501c(3), military veterans organization that represents one of the most famed military units in the history of the American Armed Forces. The association is dedicated to perpetuating the memory of comrades who have passed on and to teaching the history of the many accomplishments of the 9th and 10th Cavalry, U.S. Army in the defense of our country from 1866 to 1944. The association is composed of 34 chapters and hundreds of members at-large. The National Association of the 9th & 10th (Horse) Cavalry Association is comprised of many Chartered Chapters all across the United States. The association's mission is to perpetuate, educate, and celebrate the rich legacy and heritage of the famed Buffalo Soldier. The association has recently celebrated its 75th anniversary of President Harry Truman signing the Women's Armed Services Integration Act and Executive Order 9981 Ending Segregation in the Armed Forces in 1948.
