

Military Spouse Program

With MOAA's military spouse programs, you get the knowledge, tools and events to help you stay informed and empowered. For more than 80 years, we've led advocacy for service members and their families. From military spouse employment to military child education, we're here for you, for life. Create your spouse account today and be a part of our voice. You have access to all of the benefits we offer and your voice can make a difference. Here's how we serve you and your family:

We are here with you every step of way! We're on the web – Find us on Facebook, Twitter, on our family blog “Making it in the MilLife®”, and through our monthly E-Newsletters. Also, with 410 chapters we're probably in your backyard. We haven't been to an event we didn't love – tell us how we can support your pre-deployment conferences, yellow ribbon events, or spouse club meetings with advocacy or benefit information. If you are located in the Washington DC area and want to help your military community, please consider applying for our President's Currently Serving Spouse Advisory Council.

MOAA is committed to making sure spouse employment issues and initiatives are a top priority. Every year our association plans an award-winning Military Spouse Symposia, providing knowledge, tools and events to help military spouses connect, learn more, and be inspired. Stay tuned - We could be coming to a community near you! In addition, our members and spouses enjoy a career center that can provide professional resume reviews, interview preparation, or connect you with employers at one of our corporate career fairs.

MOAA is proud to be an official partner of the Military Spouse Employment Partnership. The First Lady, Michelle Obama, and Dr. Jill Biden have met with military families, learned about their successes and challenges, and made it their priority to support them. Joining Forces is a comprehensive national initiative to mobilize all sectors of society to give our service members and their families the opportunities and support they have earned. Learn more about MOAA's role in Joining Forces, as a member of the Military Spouse Employment Partnership.

Through our legislative action alerts and annual Storming the Hill event, you will always know what Congress is doing for military families – and when to take action. View our top “Take Action” issues that pertain to you and your family. Sign up for our weekly legislative updates in order to see how you can be an advocate for your family. Visit MOAA's Legislative Action Center to find your congressional representative and bills we are following.

Whether you are new to the military or your family is getting ready transition, MOAA's experts are here to help you navigate the many benefits you've earned during your family's service. Need a benefit and financial expert at an event? Contact us to get one of our experts to speak to your group.

If you have questions or feedback on how MOAA can better serve your military family, please contact Christine Gallagher, Deputy Director of Spouse Programs at moaaspouse@moaa.org. Not eligible for MOAA membership? Check out Voices for America's Troops.
